Texas Literary Hall of Fame™

"Texas Tales"

The Friends of the Fort Worth Public Library, Inc., a non-profit organization, is proud to present the 7th biennial Texas Literary Hall of Fame™ induction celebration on Friday, November 4, 2016 at Fort Worth Botanic Gardens, Oak Hall, 3200 Botanic Garden Blvd., Fort Worth, TX 76107.

The event begins with an Author Reception at 6:30 pm followed by the induction program at 7:00 pm. Names of the Author Honorees will be added to a plaque placed below the famous "Texas Tales" mural that hangs in the West Wing of Fort Worth Central Library.

The Texas Literary Hall of Fame ™ was founded by the Friends of the Fort Worth Public Library in May 2004 to honor authors, past and present, whose body of work, fiction or non-fiction:

Significantly contributes to Texas' literary heritage,

Is original,

Was first published in this country,

Has been previously recognized for its literary significance.

The 2016 Honorees are: H. W. Brands, Jane Pattie, George Sessions Perry, Rick Riordan, Joyce Roach, Dorothy Scarborough and Carmen Tafolla.

Reservations for this event, which include an Author reception with wine and hors d'oeuvres plus the induction ceremony are $35 per person or $240 for a table of eight. Book Sales and Signings will follow the program.

Reservations deadline is November 1, 2016. For more information, please call the Friends Book Store Wednesday through Saturday at: 817-346-2255, or please leave a message and we will contact you.
